Dear colleagues,

THE CENTENARY OF THE ORIENTAL CERAMIC SOCIETY

I am writing to introduce a forthcoming publication of the Oriental Ceramic Society. In October 2021, an exhibition celebrating our centenary will open at the Brunei Gallery, SOAS (School of Oriental and African Studies), University of London.

A lavishly illustrated catalogue containing essays by leading experts will accompany the exhibition. It has been edited by Sarah Wong and Stacey Pierson. Called Collectors, Curators, Connoisseurs: A Century of the Oriental Ceramic Society, it is priced at £100 and can be ordered online at Collectors, Curators, Connoisseurs | Online Shop of The Oriental Ceramic Society

We are very pleased to offer your members free postage and packing, worth around £30, if they place an order before 1 May 2021. Delivery is programmed for September. I will be very grateful if you will bring this special offer to the attention of your members.

Yours sincerely,

Beth McKillop, President
